

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FINE ARTS SUMMER CAMPS: VOICES ON THE LAND

Photo by Pearl Spurlock.

SHI's Voices on the Land program is offering artistically-inclined students the opportunity to attend the Sitka Fine Arts Camp in the summer of 2025.

A limited number of scholarships are available to cover tuition, housing and travel.

Middle and high school Alaska Native students from the communities of Yakutat, Craig, Klawock, Ketchikan and Juneau are eligible to apply. The camps offer classes in theater, dance, music, creative writing, visual arts, and Alaska Native arts in a two-week long session.

For information and camp dates, visit the website: <https://www.fineartscamp.org/>.

SCHOLARSHIP DEADLINE:

JANUARY 15, 2025

APPLY NOW:

bit.ly/Voices-Scholarship25

Sealaska Heritage's Voices on the Land program is supported by the Alaska Native Education (ANE) program of the US Department of Education PR# , as part of a $2.5 million award, which pays for 100 percent of the total cost of the program. The contents of this program do not represent the policy, views, or endorsement of ANE, DOE, or the US Government.