

SITKA Fine Arts Camp

Young Performers Theater Spring 2021

Thank you for your interest in theater and arts!

YPT is committed to providing an environment where young people's voices are heard; where they are given agency and can develop the empathy and responsibility needed to become future leaders of strong communities. We train young people to be observant listeners, insightful creators, thoughtful critics, passionate thinkers, and committed leaders through the medium of theater arts.

And perhaps most importantly of all: we play.

WHAT DOES YPT LOOK LIKE DURING THE PANDEMIC?

YPT is a kid-focused performing arts training program. While we feel we cannot responsibly produce live, in-person shows at the moment, we do feel that we can continue to train as actors and use theater as a space to safely explore and express ourselves during a moment of global crisis.

We will be offering limited enrollment, in-person classes designed to practice acting technique as well as student-driven creative art making to respond to the historic time period we are experiencing.

We will be enacting several health and safety protocols and precautions to ensure the wellness of our students. Please see below for more information.

Class Descriptions:

Grades 2-5: Puppets! Playing! Make-Believe! Students will engage in creative drama activities exploring storytelling, expressive movement, and wild and fanciful imagination-filled worlds. Our focus will be on thinking outside the box, laughing, and looking at the world with wonder! Students will explore a variety of characters and stories, and test their wit by inventing their own. We will play, improvise, disguise ourselves, and reveal our biggest emotions as we learn to act on stage!

Middle School: Students will broaden their acting repertoire in this class. We will learn how to take on both comedic and dramatic scenes, how to dive deep into character creation, how to give memorable auditions, and how to develop habits to be a strong, creative, adaptable actor. We will also spend time learning how to move beyond the script and make theater that really belongs to us.

High School: High school students will continue to refine traditional acting techniques as well as contemporary methods of devising and creating innovative theater capable of adapting to a rapidly-changing world and responding to local and global crises. Textual analysis and scenework will be balanced with a strong focus on self-expression and physical acting. This class will be highly specialized to the skill level and experience of the students involved.

Virtual Class: Students will work on the same skills as students in in-person classes, as well as focusing on the special artistic opportunities only available through the brand new medium of live digital theater. We will be learning wildly on the cutting edge of modern theater!

Semester Dates: Classes for the fall semester will begin Monday, January 11th and end Thursday May 6th. There will be no class on MLK Day, Monday, January 18th, no class the week of February 15th, and no class the week of March 15th.

Location: All in-person classes will be held in the Performing Arts Center auditorium. Students in virtual classes will be contacted with further instructions on how to connect to live classes via Zoom.

Enrollment: To help maintain social distancing, each class will have a maximum enrollment of 12 students. If there is sufficient demand, additional times may be added for a second section.

Participation Fees (for the whole 16 week semester, tax not included):

Grades 2-5: $320/student ($64/month)

Middle School: $480/student ($96/month)

High School: $480/student ($96/month)

Virtual Class: $480/student ($96/month)

Financial Aid: We at the Sitka Fine Arts Camp are committed to making opportunities in the arts available to students regardless of financial circumstances. Expense should not be a barrier to the arts. Consequently, need-based financial aid is available. For applications, visit the Youth Theater page at www.fineartscamp.org or email me at zeke@fineartscamp.org

We understand that finances are difficult for many people at the moment and are committed to providing opportunities to students who want them despite unprecedented circumstances.

Please note that participation fees will look like an increase compared to past enrollment fees for YPT shows. The simple truth is that the program will cost more to run this year, and prices reflect a full-semester program rather than a show-by-show program. Families that are able to pay will help those families that cannot. Payment can be made in full for the semester, or paid monthly. If you cannot afford the increase in tuition, please join the program with financial aid.

Communication: All communication will be done via email. Please check your email regularly.

Attendance: Students should arrive no more than 5 minutes before class starts and leave no later than 5 minutes after class ends. Please communicate with me if you anticipate being late or absent. Students should bring a water bottle, pencil, and wear clothes they are comfortable moving in.
